ABOUT ME

German citizen living in Italy, born in Honduras on March 5, 1965. Academic Deacon; Full Professor; credentialed scientist; Spanish translator, editor and writer. I Currently chair the AICS (Aeroponic Innovation Center of Sardinia) at the Salesians University but It would be my honor to share a sabbatical year working for an International Development Institution implementing a short-term profitable socio-ecological project like "EDEN", or involve academically within an Agriculture local Faculty/School transferring our aeroponic research which could bring more possibilities to increase the human dignity and income of communities that are disadvantaged by climate impacts and social inequity.
